Lab 9 ex 3

I am able to store the signals in the array and check the sent signals but sending all signals to test all cases at the same run causes problems for identifying the meaning of signals.
However running separate test cases does not cause any irregularities.